

MN Strain Redbud

Cercis canadensis

Description

This handsome tree bears small pink flowers in spring before leaves appear. Later brown fruit pods form. This strain is grown from seed collected at the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum. It does well in sun and part shade. Selected for hardiness by the University of Minnesota and introduced in 1992.

Attributes

Height

20-30'

Spread

20-25'

Shape

Vase-shaped

Foliage

Deep green

Fall Foliage

Brilliant yellow

Exposure

Full Sun

Zone

4-9