

Globe Blue Spruce-Tree Form

Picea pungens 'Glauca Globosa'

Description

The most popular dwarf blue spruce, grown on a 2' standard. Closely set branches angle upward from the center. In spring, bright silvery blue shoots produce a delightful display of soft new growth. The blue-gray color will be brighter in sunny locations.

Attributes

Height
2' Standard

Spread
24-30"

Shape
Globose

Foliage
Blue-gray

Fall Foliage

Exposure
Full Sun

Zone
3-7